Wow! That Went Fast

Caleb graduated from high school last week and we are still getting used to the idea. Our prayers since the day of his birth have been that he would grow in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man. (Luke 2:52)

We also asked you to pray for God's guidance for Caleb, and are quite pleased to report that he has been recruited by the University of North Florida. He will be running for their Cross Country and Track teams and majoring in Mechanical Engineering.

As you might note in this picture, he is not short. Likewise, he graduated with honors for both academics and athletics. I guess all those prayers have been answered well.

Thank you!

In Him, Russ & Jo Anne

Prom

Amy went to her first prom dance last month with a great group of friends. I think this is my favorite picture of the whole night. There were young men present to escort the ladies, but their pictures just didn't look like they were having as much fun as these girls were.
